

QUALITY POLICY

Kenya School of TVET is committed to providing and sustaining professional development and capacity building a TVET practitioners in Kenya through a comprehensive range of programmes that are geared to satisfying the needs and expectations of our customers.

KSTVET has established, implemented and continues to maintain a QMS based on ISO 9001:2015 with a commitment of ensuring conformity to the Standard, as well as compliance with relevant statutory and regulatory requirements. KSTVET has a policy of promoting improvement and setting of Quality Objectives in line with the framework laid down within ISO 9001:2015 Standard at functional areas.

KSTVET is committed to continuously train and develop its staff, provide a conducive working environment and maintain good corporate working environment and maintain good corporate social responsibility by ensuring effective communication of the Quality Policy to all the employees, customers, relevant statutory/regulatory organ and other stakeholders.

Chief Executive Officer

2022